KAIROS

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY
THOUSAND OAKS, CA

From the very beginning, religious tradition has been an integral part of California Lutheran University. One example of that Lutheran tradition is the strength of the CLU Campus Ministry, which includes community service and campus fellowship. With this veneration in mind, the sign of the fish is the Kairos' symbol for 1996-97.

Early Christians, who endured heavy persecution because of their faith, recognized each other by this sign. A Christian who drew half a fish in the sand waited to see if the other person completed it. If the design was completed, they were then able to speak freely of their faith.

Although the symbol is not used for that purpose today, it is important because it is still associated with Christianity.

Kairos' theme this year is "Go out into all the world" (Mark 16:15). Students are reminded to share their knowledge and experiences of Cal Lutheran with those they know and those whom they will meet.

The journey began at CLU with many experiences which prepared students to serve others. Now, as they leave, making their way "into all the world," this graduating class has the rare opportunity to go forth and make a difference...to draw the other half of the fish in the sand.

STUDENT

SANTA LUCIA

Each year CLU celebrates the Christian legacy of Santa Lucia. This commemorates the faith and martyrdom of a young Sicilian noble woman of the fourth century. Persecuted for her Christian beliefs, she was blinded. Miraculously, her eyesight was restored, but she died at the stake on December 13, 304 A.D.

She is remembered as the patron saint of afflicted eyes, and her life is celebrated in a festival of lights symbolizing the faith, hope, and compassion that she exemplified.

The ceremony included the telling of Santa Lucia's story to the Santa Lucia Court and the Santa Lucia message that was given by the Lucia bride.

CLU students nominate one woman and one man from each class on the evidence of these qualities in their lives. Senior Heather Embree was elected as Santa Lucia. Her escort was Matt Preston.

The women nominated as Santa Lucia's attendants were Senior Heidi Person, Junior Kim Roden, Sophomore Christine Lintvedt, and Freshman Sara Larcome. They wore white robes and held candles tied with red.

Heather, representing Lucia, was dressed in a white robe trimmed with a red slash and wore a crown with lit candles. The male escorts were Senior Tim Johnson, Junior Brad Bjelke, Junior Lawrence Rodriguez, and Freshman Dan Roschke.

The annual ceremony reminds students to lead a virtuous life.

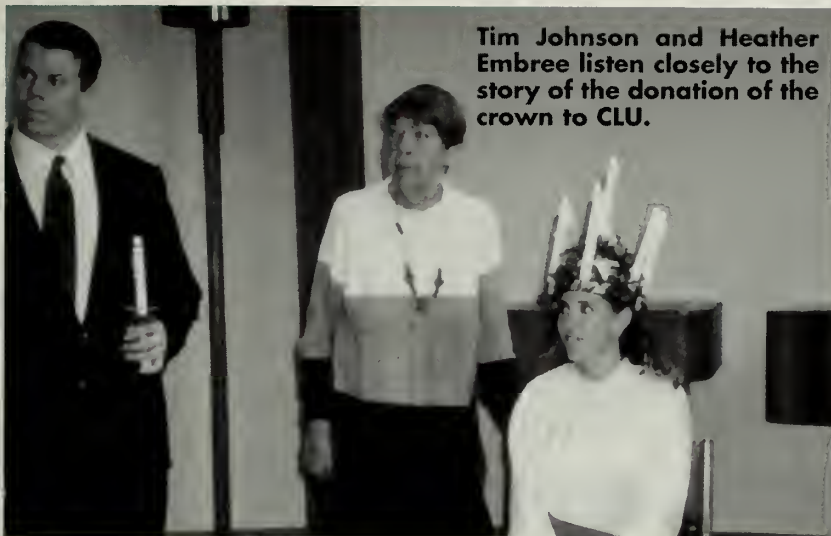

Peter Berg and Kim Roden light the crown of Heather Embree, Santa Lucia, at the ceremony just before Christmas.

HOMECOMING

Middle: Ryan Bobcock and Eric Handke enjoy the Homecoming victory with Rachel Ronning and Christine Lintvedt.

Bottom: Rachael Oliveros-Larsen and her date take a moment from dancing to enjoy a drink.

It was a week of fun and excitement for Cal Lutheran students, alumni, faculty, administration and community who celebrated the 32nd Homecoming Week. During the week of October 13-19, CLU carried out this year's theme "Mardi Gras" with special flair of New Orleans.

The week began with the hall decorating contest where student residents from each hall decorated the hall into a Mardi Gras palace. First place winner was Pederson Hall, second place was New West, and third place was Old West.

Following the hall decorating event came mask decorating. Students were able to design masks to wear to the Homecoming Dance or just around campus. Later that week a few students participated in a dating game that took place in the cafeteria during a special cajun dinner. Students participating were able to choose their dates for the Homecoming Dance. Eric Handke was lucky enough to match up with Christine Lintvedt during the game. Other participants included, Amy Waters, Jason Chronister, Julie Harris and Danielle Gunn.

As the week of fun unwound, the annual Coronation ceremony for the crowning of the 1996 Homecoming King and Queen were announced and crowned. The King was Senior Matt Preston and the Queen was Senior Heather Embree.

A carnival then followed on Memorial Parkway where the street was transformed into an attraction park that included a ferris wheel, a big air slide, obstacle course, club game booths, a gyroscope and the band Naked Jumpies.

Saturday morning was host to the annual

The best float was chosen by six judges who voted New West's float as the first place winner, the Senior Pride Committee's float came in as second place and Old West's float came in as third.

The night ended with the dance that was held in the Pavilion. Students enjoyed the music while dancing the night away. □

LD LU DOWN

CAL LU STUDENTS GET DOWN TO THE BOOT SCOOT'N BOOGIE AND SHOW HOW THEY CAN PUSH THEIR TUSHES

"LU" Down, held on October 4, 1996 was sponsored by Inter-Club Council and the Educational Programming Office. The night began at 8 pm with line dancing lessons. The Tush Push, Carribean Cowboy, and a simple Two Step were some of the dances taught. Country Events' disk jockey, Ed, continued the evening with the Macarena; not a traditional country dance but fun for all. Later that evening they had a contest while doing the Two Step to see who was the best.

There were many other activities besides dancing, such as the jail, different tables and waiting for the cow to "plop".

The only thing the calf plopped in the "Cow Plop." contest was his little body when he laid down to go to sleep. Julie Baumgartener, coordinator of the event, decided Orlando Avila and Erin Baumgartener would split the prize money of $50, since the calf took his nap in their boxes.

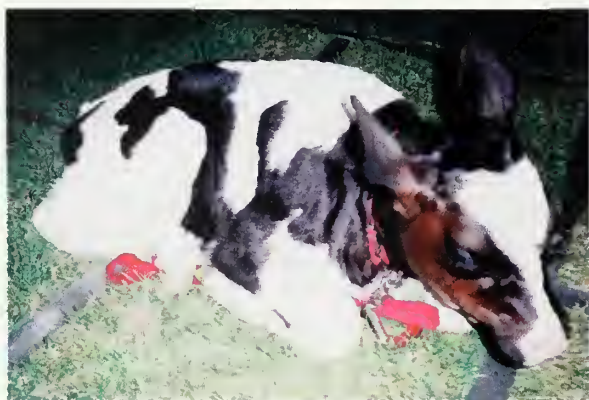

The "Sheriff Association" of Old West RHA had fun arresting people throughout the night. Amy Waters (Old West President), Amanda Damien (Old West Treasurer), and Amanda's brother Greg Damien were the law enforcement for the evening. All of the inmates decided to serve their five minute sentence rather than pay 50 cents for bail.

The Latin American Student Organization (L.A.S.O.) sold drinks and nachos to the hungry cowboys & cowgirls. In addition, other clubs participated including: Rowing, which sold key chains; the senior Class, who sold drinks; and Rotaract Club.

"Larkspur" also provided entertainment throughout the evening between sessions with the disc jockey. A representative from Borderline country bar gave out CD's, Borderline passes and T-shirts to people who answered country music trivia questions, CLU trivia questions, or showed off something unusual or uncommon. Michele Moller was the first girl to show her tattoo, Matt Wiemero was the first guy to show lipstick on his lips and Paul-Andre White named the year CLU was founded.

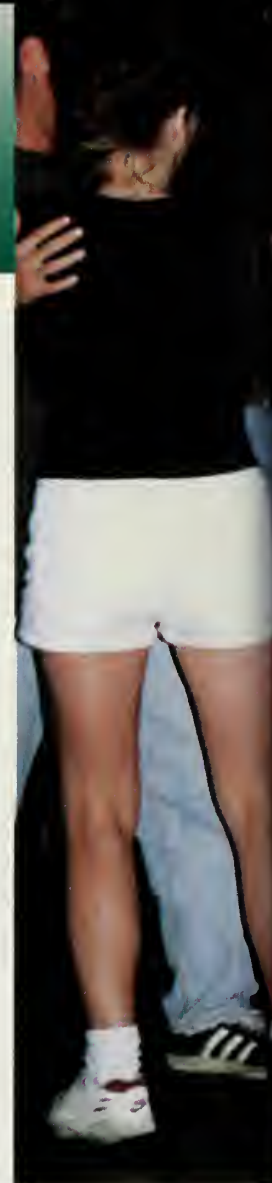

Overall, the 3rd annual Lu Down was a hit again, thanks to the hard work of everyone involved.

REGENTS CHOIR

REGENTS CHOIR MEMBERS EXCEL IN ALL LANGUAGES

The all-women's choir of CLU is Regents Choir. The Regents have opportunities to perform at chapel services as well as the Annual Fall Convocation Service, Fall Concert, Christmas Concert, and the Spring Concert.

At the Fall Concert they sang Two Motets which included "Veni Domine" and "Laudate pueri." For the Christmas Concert they sang a French carol, "Turo-Louro-Louro" and a Spanish lullaby, "A La Rorro Nino." In addition, they have also had the opportunity to sing in Norwegian. Regents also sang "Long Long Ago" and other traditional carols at the Christmas Concert.

Rachel Oliveros-Larsen, a Sophomore member of both CLU and Regents, said, "I think that Regents is a lot of fun. We have many talented women, and I am proud to be part of it."

Amanda Young, Freshman, says, "It (Regents) is a great group. Dr. Morton is a great director and I really enjoy it. It is definitely worth the time and effort."

The Regents look forward to many great years of singing so many different varieties of songs.

CLU CHOIR

THE CLU CHOIR TAKES A TOUR OF THE REGAN LIBRARY

The CLU choir is a mixture of all types of talent. Each person has to try out to make the choir with priority to Music majors and minors.

Each year the choir participates in many events. These concerts, which are sometimes performed with the orchestra, include the Fall Founders Day Convocation Service, Fall Concert, Christmas Concert, Spring Concert and their annual trip. Each year new selections of music are chosen and the Spring Break tour is at a different location. Choir trips have ranged from places such as Northern California to Hawaii.

In addition to the annual concerts and Spring Break trip they also go to other places to perform. This year they went to the Ronald Regan Library. Dr. Morton, the director of the CLU Choir, was very happy about the concert that was held at the Regan Library. Kari Gravrock, class of '98, joined the CLU choir for the first time this year and says, "I'm having a really great time and everyone always encourages each other."

Unlike the Regents choir, the CLU choir showcases the talent of both male and female vocalists.

MAINSTAGE

The CLU Drama Department presented the award-winning play "Marvin's Room" as a Fall Semester production. When asked why Director Ken Gardenr chose to present this moving account of how a life can be altered as a result of a diagnosis of Leukemia, he responded: "I went to school with the man who wrote it, Scott McPherson. I loved it and had been wanting to do it for several years now. This was the last play McPherson wrote before his death at 32 from AIDS:"

Kristina Fresqueze, senior, portrays Bessie who has been told that she has leukemia. Faced with this devastating diagnoses, she must now decide upon the care of her invalid father and aunt. Her hope of a cure for Leukemia is dependent upon bone marrow donated by her estranged sister Lee and Lee's two sons, Hank and Charlie.

Kristina Fresquez summed up her feelings regarding her character Bessie by saying: "One of the defining characteristics of Bessie is her self-giving attitude. She is the kind of person who will take care of others before herself."

The rest of the talented cast included

Natan Black, freshman as Hank; Krista Knudson, freshman, as Lee; Jennifer Taylor, a freshman, as Aunt Ruth; Ryan Gildersleeve, freshman, as Dr. Wally; Holly Forrsell, senior, as the mental ward receptionist; Cyndi Schmidt, junior, as the receptionist; Jess Osier, freshman as Bob and Marvin; and Tom Phillipson as Charlie.

Aunt Ruth tries to help Bessie as she realizes the full impact of her diagnosis.

Linus tries to have a philosophical discussion with Patty, but all she is thinking about is spaghetti.

Another production put on by CLU's drama department was "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown." This was play based on the "Peanuts" comic strip by Charles M. Schultz.

"You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" was about Charlie Brown getting a little help from his friends. Like always Charlie Brown was down on his luck and couldn't seem to do anything right.

Danielle Gunn said that "It was a lot of fun working with Barbara and tap dancing. It was a good experience because I had never done Children's Theatre..."

Some of the funniest parts of the play was when Lucy took a survey about her crabbiness. Another scene was when Snoopy was flying on the top of his dog house and was trying to shoot down the Red Barron.

"You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" was brought to life by Kim Roden as Patty; Tony Gardner as Charlie Brown; Rachel Oliveros-Larsen as Lucy; Matt Powell as Snoopy; Harry Garland as Linus; Christopher Mann as Schroeder, Michelle Levine as Linus' Blanket; and Danielle Gunn and Dawn Williams as the Supertime Dancers.

The cast contemplates a book report on Peter Rabbit.

Above: Lucy tries to talk Schroeder into marrying her, but he is only concerned with his piano playing.

FRESHMEN

Frosh Orientation 1996 was called Fresh Start. Past all of the necessities of being a college freshman, the class of 2000 had other things to do that were just as important. They had many questions. How does voicemail work? Where is Taco Bell? Peer Advisors, Faculty Mentors and Student Life Mentors were all ready to help.

At Playfair Peer Advisors and frosh alike let loose to have a total blast. There was back-to-back dancing, live sculptures, and a time for everyone to strut their stuff while the group chanted their name. The point was for everyone to have fun and remember that even in college everyone needs to take time to play.

For the second year in a row the freshman class has participated in the annual painting of the white CLU rocks on Mt. Clef Ridge. Freshman Sommer Embree recalls, "I met Sara 'Beracuda Moonbeam' Carlson while painting the rocks and now we're rock painting buddies!"

During Froshfest each peer group was coupled with another to create a skit to be performed in front of the freshmen and transfers. Michael Feller said, "I mauled Trinity Mueller in our skit and her boyfriend was sitting in the front row." Freshmen learn quickly that CLU is a small world. □

ITALY

Piazza San Marco is famous for its architecture which was influenced from the Venetian Empire in the east.

For most students, Christmas Break was a time for relaxation, family, and friends. But for twenty nine students, the learning continued for three more weeks after fall semester's end. Students from a variety of majors toured Italy with Jerry Slattum, art professor. This trip introduced students to great art, awe-inspiring architecture, and beautiful food throughout Italy, during one of the coldest European winters in recent history.

The tour started in Rome with visits to the Coliseum and Trevi Fountain. The Spanish Steps and the Piazza Paplo were popular on New Year's Eve. Other sites seen in Rome included the Sistine Chapel and Vatican City.

Many other cities enjoyed were Venice, Sienna, and Verona. Everyone's favorite city was Venice. Mike Treiberg loved the trip because of Venice's charm and the "great food, great group and beautiful country."

The trip was also unforgettable because of the architecture and the entertainment provided by Jerry.

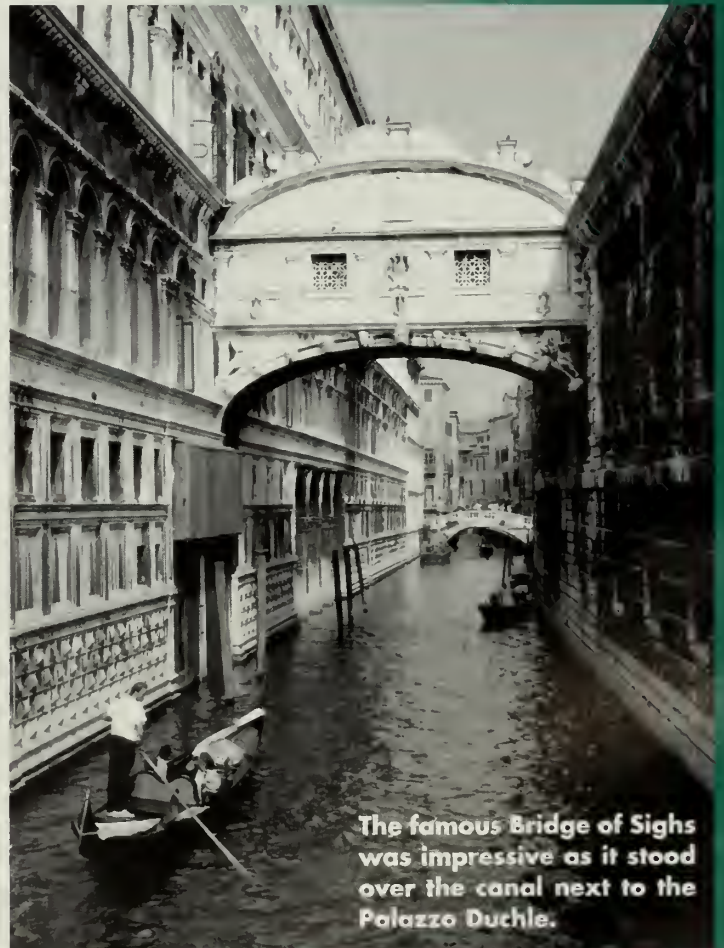

At Santa Croce many famous florentines were buried such as Michelangelo and Galileo.

Danielle Gunn, Dan Medic, Ingrid Becker, Margaret Robinson, Andy Withers, Ann Marie Addicott, Amanda Woods, Mike Treiberg, and Corey Evans on Michelangelo's Hill in Florence.

The Piazza del Campo is the focal point of the city because every July and August the Palio, a medieval horserace, draws thousands to the city.

The famous Bridge of Sighs was impressive as it stood over the canal next to the Palazzo Duchle.

ALCOHOL AWARENESS WEEK

Alcohol Awareness Week which ran October 6-10, 1996, was full of fun and education. The Executive Board of R.H.A. showed Leaving Las Vegas on Sunday evening in the Forum to show the consequences of the alcoholic lifestyle.

Monday's lesson was given by the C.A.R.E. committee. In support of non-violent relationships they handed out purple ribbons for students and faculty to wear throughout the week. Velvet Terry, Michelle Levine and Rob Hill performed a skit and discussion was facilitated by Erin Rivers, C.A.R.E. President.

On Tuesday the hall councils of Old West and Pederson Halls presented

"How to Party" in the SUB. Old West gave tips on having a safe party and Pederson provided Mocktails. Everyone had fun dancing to the music, drinking mocktails and hanging out with friends. Amy Waters, President of the Old West hall council said, "I hope we opened people's eyes but I doubt we changed their minds." Wednesday was "The Real Game of Life."

Thursday New West and Thompson Halls threw a 70's party at the Need to give an option for a sober evening. They held a costume contest and a dance contest. Many people felt that this was the most successful Alcohol Awareness Week in years.

BA BANDS

CULTURAL DIVERSITY IS DISPLAYED THROUGH MUSIC

Cal Luis is known by many for its various student activities. In fact, it is ranked as having the number one student activities program in the west coast colleges. The various activities include, The Need, Lu Down, Homecoming, The Dating Game, guest speakers, and socials. One thing that always adds excitement to student life is the different bands.

One opportunity for bands was at the Reggae Fest where World Tribe performed. They also played later that night at The Need. In addition to World Tribe, The Need also has other bands throughout the year. Some of these bands include Blimp and Your Moose (which was formerly known as Timber).

SENATE

Members of the Student Senate on any college campus are faced with many daunting decisions which must be made. The Senate at Cal Lutheran is no exception. These students put the well-being of the university—and the wishes of their peers—as their priorities in running the school.

SENATE MEMBERS

Advisor: Bill Stott

At-Large Senator: Tom Lunde

Senate Recorder: Robin Pry

Senior Senators: Amy Beuthel, Rebecca Sebastian, and Mark Segedie

Junior Senators: Mike Foster, Jeremy Hofer, and Kim Wee

Freshman Senators: Sara Carlson, Kyle Cookmeyer, and Jon Ferguson

RHA

RHA is made up of representatives from each hall. It is RHA which brings some of the many programs to CLU. For example, they are in charge of the hall caroling contest, the CARE packages at the beginning of the year, Alcohol Awareness Week, and Sexual Awareness Week. RHA is headed by Michele Moller.

DANCE OBSESSION

The purpose of the dance club, Dance Obsession, is to promote dance on campus. Dance Obsession provides opportunities for students to teach each other the form of dance they know best. These forms of dance include ballet, tap, jazz, modern and ethnic styles. Basically anything that gets your feet moving! Dancers also have the chance to demonstrate their dances through several performances throughout the year. This year they will participate in the Christmas Choir, Encuentras, and the Festival of Women in the Arts. In the future, expect to see additional appearances at the Homecoming Parade and Mosaic Festival.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The purpose of the Future Teachers Club is to allow CLU undergraduate students to explore the field of education prior to graduation. We are excited to sell our T-shirts which promote education and are in the process of establishing a teacher/mentor program with CLU alumni who are currently in the field of education. We are also planning to host guest speakers who will speak on topics such as first year teaching, CLU's credential program and educational values in other countries.

ROTORACT

Rotoract is a community service oriented club derived from the roaries across America. The members participate in events such as the non-profit organization run, Conejo Valley Days travel regularly to the local Cerebral Palsy home to do Valentines, Halloween and Christmas crafts. This year, they were active participants in the Lu Spare Change drive. A Santa Claus visit to Ventura County Medical hospital was an "uplifting" event for them. Rotoract also has a trip planned to Mexico where they will donate their time to orphanages.

STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The CLU Student Alumni Association is a student-run organization formed to promote student alumni interaction and to ensure that there will always be a bridge between CLU students of the past and present. SAA membership develops motivated and involved student leaders who become active members of the university both as students and as alumni. Some Student Alumni Association activities include: Alumni Mentor program that pairs students with alumni with similar career interest, an annual Elvis concert, meeting with alumni at their home, food for Manna Christmas Caroling, district and national SAA conventions and fundraising for SAA scholarships. SAA offers its members the opportunity to serve CLU and the community, make new friends, improve leadership skills, network with alumni and improve their resume. They also attend conventions at UCLA, BYU, and Notre Dame!

COMMON GROUND

Common Ground is a weekly gathering of students of all faiths. They sing songs, fast and slow, have a short devotion, take communion, and have group prayers. Because of students' schedules, some weeks there is a small group while other weeks there are many students. Many students see this as a time to relax, de-stress from the week, and to focus on God.

LASO

The Latin American Student Organization provides students with the opportunity to learn more about their cultural backgrounds and enrich their lives while doing so. The group works to be supportive of each other. LASO sponsors many activities which include guest speakers, information on scholarships, participation in El Dia de Los Muertos, and Encuentros. LASO is a place for students to feel more at home.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The mission of Habitat for Humanity is to provide a decent place to live for all people. The CLU chapter works with the Ventura Chapter of Habitat International. The group takes one day of each month as a work day. In a larger sense, they are part of Vision Habitat. Each year they also plan a trip to Mexico during the Spring Break. Overall, the CLU chapter is very active and all the members enjoy participating in such a worthwhile donation of their time and energy.

YEARBOOK

"The yearbook staff is made up of a highly motivated and gifted team of dedicated journalists. The staff achieved undreamed of heights in layout and pictures. The improved quality and design of this yearbook is testimony to their commitment. Major changes this year includes a new advisor and few pages with which to work. The goal of every yearbook is to keep a permanent record of the college years that will last a lifetime to serve as a myriad of memories. The staff hopes that this book will allow each student to remember their experiences from Cal Lu."

REJOICE

Each week students gather in the chapel lounge to enjoy songs and devotions. Different students volunteer to do devotion which can last from five to fifteen minutes. Each devotion is different, either being just reading a poem, or sharing something good about the week. It is an upbeat time to see friends, relax, and worship God.

FOOTBALL

With a new head coach, the loss of some key seniors and the addition of a large group of freshman, the Kingsmen football team had their hands full this season. The Kingsmen finished with 4-5 record.

The pre-season began with a trip to Coronado called "Break Away" where players found themselves doing everything but football and forming strong team ties that would last the season. "I was iffy about Coronado at first, but I ended up really liking the atmosphere," said Kevin "Smiley" Lyons, a freshman from Bakersfield.

Coach Scott Squires named the "Break Away" as one of the highlights of the season. He added the University of San Diego game and the Occidental and Menlo College games to the list. "The last game against Menlo was great. We played with enthusiasm. That's the kind of team I want for next year."

A surprisingly successful group of players this year were the freshman. Many were handed starting positions due to some critical injuries. Jermaine Dixon, a wide receiver from Pasadena, finished the season with 18 catches and was the No. 1 freshman receiver. Tony Weak, an offensive lineman from Camarillo, and Lyon, a defensive back, saw a lot of playing time as well.

Squires argues that the season could have been different had there been less injuries. "I turned around at the Redlands game and saw 16 guys in street clothes. I told them to take all their healthy parts and put them together 'cause were gonna need them for the game." One of the most devastating losses was tailback Fredrik Nanhed, who pulled his hamstring during pre-season practices. He was unable to regain his true form until more than half the season was over, but did manage to rush for 178 yards on 22 carries against Menlo in the final game of the season.

Other injured players were defensive end's, Kyle Donovan, and Jason Cowles as well as Jon Ferguson, a running back from Bakersfield and David Aranda, a linebacker from Redlands. All were required to have surgery.

Squires was blessed with an aggressive defense which included, seniors Manuel Cantero, Justin Monical, Mario Guerrero, Will Plemons, David Jaglowski, Stan Rohn and Damon Barnett. Three outstanding defensive backs that have three more years to show their stuff are: Steve Perry, Andy Bartsch and Lyon.

Squires hopes to better their record next season. "I intend to win!" he said. No major changes are in the playbooks for offense or defense. With all the ups and downs of this season, the Kingsmen hope to balance out a winning record for next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Lead by Senior Jed Colvin, Junior Cory Stigile and two talented freshmen, Caroline Becker and Kellie Stigile, the Cal Lu cross-country team proudly represented our school with their performance. The members this year were: Roman Achberger, Raffi Bahadarian, Mark Bash, Ryan Girod, Jon Dennison, Raul Rios, Jason Wagner, Jamie Cope, Kirsten Kramer, Jamie La Cascia and Amy Van Atta.

The team's season consisted of meets at Whittier, Westmont and UC Riverside. In addition, CLU hosted the CLU Invitational here with visitors from Division I powerhouses such as USC, SDSU and other teams from SCIAC. CLU placed eighth at the CLU Invitational. At the SCIAC Multi-Duals Meet held in La Mirada, Jed Colvin placed fourth. This landed him a spot in the pack at the NCAA division III championships. Colvin made an outstanding finish at the NCAA finals held in Rock Island, Ill. with his fastest 8.0 Km finish (26:02). Also, Kellie Stigile placed 37th.

This year, the team was lead by a new coach, CLU alum, Brady Day. Day was a great choice as the new coach because of his familiarity with CLU and his commitment to its success. Overall, the team finished eighth in SCIAC and is looking forward to a stronger finish next year.

Kellie Stigile (right) is CLU's best bet for a title in women's distance.

Jason Wagner and Kory Stigile get a running start for CLU in a distance event at a league invitational.

Kelli Stigile gives her all to Regals Cross Country as she performs in a distance event.

TRACK AND FIELD

The 1997 track team team had lots of CLU pride. The team captains were Matt Creech, Justin Monical, Katherine Neilsen, and Evi Orologas. Following are team members who were on top in their events: DISTANCE, Stigile; MIDDLE DISTANCE, Stigile; SPRINTS, Kantoft, Nielsen; HURDLES, Dixon, Nielsen; STEEPLE CHASE, Stigile; HIGH JUMP, Schuyler, Becker; LONG JUMP, Bash, Becker; TRIPLE JUMP, Schuyler, Becker; JAVELIN, Parris, Armijo; DISCUS, Creech, Orologas; SHOT PUT, Creech, Damien; HAMMER, Creech, Evi Orologas.

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team consisted of 13 players (one freshman, one junior transfer, and eight returning players). The starting lineup included Karen Kasper, Light, Jennifer Pappas, Tracey Little, Liz Martinez and Mandy Stephens. There will be 11 players returning for the '97 season.

"This year our team was physically stronger and had more depth. However, we were not nearly as mentally strong as last year," Eaton said.

Both Light and Eaton hope to see changes for next year. Light suggests that every player needs to work harder at practice, as though it were a real game. "I hope we become stronger in offense, due to the fact that we are losing our two strongest hitters," Eaton said.

Overall, the 1996 volleyball season was a successful one. The team was like a family. They all had a lot of fun together on and off the court.

Light was disappointed that the team ended the season with a loss, because that will be what they remember. "It is frustrating to lose when you know that you are a better team," Light said.

The team hopes to come back strong and in good spirits for the 1997 season. They will be coached by Mr. James Park for a fourth consecutive year.

MEN'S SOCCER

Just as the Winter and Spring sports are starting, the men's soccer team is getting a well deserved break from an intense season.

The Kingsmen won the SCIAC for the second time in a row this year. "I am very pleased with the season, and I am proud of the program," head coach Dan Kuntz said. The soccer team was 12-7 overall, 8-2 in conference.

"Our goals for this season was first to win every game, second to win the SCIAC and third make it to the playoffs," Kuntz said

Injuries have been a problem for the team this year. Key defender Edwin Astudillo experienced hamstring trouble throughout the season and offensive player Ryan Dobbins was out for the last two games.

After winning the SCIAC for two consecutive years, and proving that they can play "up there" with anyone, the Kingsmen should finally get the reputation and respect that will get them a spot in the playoffs

"Men's soccer in Southern California is very competitive," Kuntz commented. He also added, "To get the respect needed to be considered for a playoff spot takes time."

"We have a very good team returning next year, Kuntz said. "Add a few quality transfer and freshman players and we will be even stronger than we were this year."

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The women's basketball team was very successful this year. With an overall record of 15-10 and a SCIAC record of 7-5, the team posted yet another winning season.

Team members this year were Shelby Allred, Jenny Toler, Brandie Murrish, Michele Bennett, Joy Garcia, Keelee Faulk, Jennifer Hedger, Anita Richardson, Melissa Wood, Missy Rider, Heather Verner, Evi Orologas, Susan Stitt, and Monika Nagy. The team's scoring leader was senior Evi Orologas with an overall average of 16.9 points per game. Evi was also the leading rebounder with 9.1 per game.

During the season, CLU had three players named to the Second Team All-SCIAC; Murrish, Orologas, and Richardson. Murrish was named "Columbus Multimedia" West Region Player of the Week in January. She also had an outstanding performance against Occidental where she achieved a "triple-double."

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Front row: Lara Heifner, Shannon Pennington, Nadine Rajabi, Mary Vincent, Deanna Luque, Kristin Taylor, Kim Holeman

Once again the Regals proved true to their outstanding SCIAC record of 70-1-1 during the last six years.

The Women's soccer team ended an excellent season with the best record in SCIAC thanks to "the combination of people, desire and good times," head coach Dan Kuntz said. He also commented, "Anytime you have a group with strong leadership from the inside that come together with a passion to do well, you sprinkle it with a little fun and you'll go a long way."

This team has had more MVPs, more All-West players, more goals scored and less goals scored against than any team in the conference. The Regals were in the NCAA playoffs for the fifth time in the last six years, ranked No. 2 behind National Champions UC San Diego, and ranked 13th in the nation.

The only losses suffered this season were to national champion teams, UCSD and Cal State Dominguez Hills. Holly Roepke, sophomore, and Jill Simmer, senior, each had 14 goals for the end of the season. Kim Holeman, junior, followed up with 12 and Chayna Manning, freshman, had 6 goals.

The coach said, "They're a very accepting group who has some fun teasing and joking, but once they step across the line, they're a team."

Kristin Taylor, sophomore defender said, "We support each other on and off the field and it shows in our play."

The team is seen as always giving opportunities for growing. Kuntz believes, "Soccer is a piece of education, it's not everything. It does relate a lot to life though, with no time outs and having to problem solve while in the game."

MEN'S TENNIS

With only one loss, Senior Mark Ellis (9-1), made a lasting impression on CLU for his last season of college tennis. Ranked number one in the pre-season, Ellis proved his abilities again this year after winning the 1996 NCAA Division III Singles Championship. The NCAA All-American also helped the team earn the best record in SCIAC with an overall record of 9-2 and an SCIAC record of 4-1. Their only loss in the league was to Redlands.

Every member of the team had winning seasons with other outstanding players such as Adam Nielson, who was ranked Number 25 in the region, and Jenia Karimov, who was ranked Number 5 in the nation at his junior college.

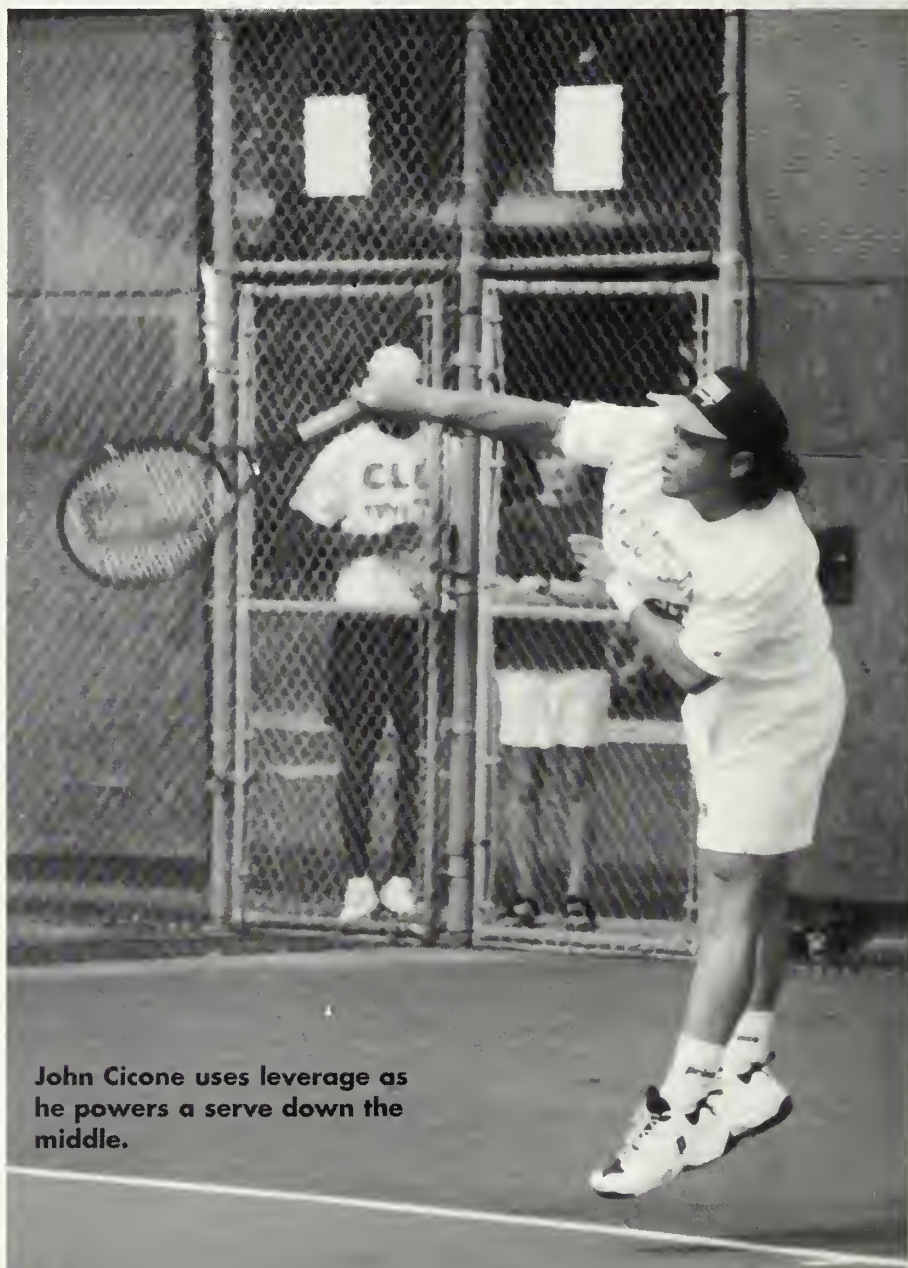

Other team members included: John Cicone, Bryan Holloway, Kristjan Koik, Olatunde Osunsanmi, Carl Maloney, and Philipp Smaczny.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

With an overall record of 7-6 and 3-4 in the always-tough SCIAC, the CLU women's tennis team had their work cut out for them and a challenging season in 1997. Not intimidated by the daunting task, a number of the women players forged memorable seasons.

Heather Szabo (9-3), Jill Embree (7-2), Karrie Matson (2-1), and Ingrid Becker (2-1) all experienced winning singles seasons as well as strong performances in their doubles tournaments.

Team SCIAC wins were over LaVerne (7-2), Whittier (6-3), and Claremont (5-4). This year, CLU played host to the SCIAC Championships.

Jennifer Otto believed that the team was so strong because, "One of our team's best assets was the tremendous depth; if one of us couldn't play a match, we always had several players to draw from that could easily fill her shoes."

Other team members included: Kaarin Benson, Kelly Chow, Michelle Faley, Diane Royer Alia Gustafson, Cindy Bear, Shane Andersen, and Jennifer Otto.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Based primarily on a 10-2 home record, the Kingsmen Basketball team finished the season at 17-8. CLU was 9-5 in SCIAC action.

Richard Rider, the Men's Basketball Coach, stated, "The Kingsmen basketball team had good senior leadership. This united the team to win games."

The squad was hurt by the loss of six varsity starters who graduated from last year's team. Filling the void were forwards Andy Saint, Brian Capella, and guard Christian Dunbar. Coach Rider had high expectations for these players this year. Capella led the Kingsmen in scoring with a 13.2 per game average.

There were many new players on the team in 1996. With the focus on defense, the Kingsmen were able to put together another standout season to maintain their long winning tradition.

"The talent was dominated by a few players last year, but it was spread out to many other players this season," said Chad Dueker, senior guard.

Duker also stated that "winning championships was our final goal."

SOFTBALL

Head coach, Keisha Davis, is pleased with the CLU softball team this year. She said that they were #1 in the conference with a record of 14-5-1. She also said, "They were an enthusiastic team who came back strong and played well with their backs against the wall. There were several very good pitchers this year such as Senior Gina Delianedis, Junior Kathy Proffitt, and Freshman Christine Halcomb."

The softball team's batting average was .329, while their opponents had an average of .283. The highest average for CLU, was held by Freshman Christine Halcomb (.500).

CLU's biggest competition in SCIAC was from Claremont. Other non-league games against Chapman and UCSD proved to be tough competition for the Regals. Their losses to Southern California College put the team's chances for playoffs in jeopardy.

Christine Halcomb slides headfirst into second, just ahead of the throw.

Yvette McNally applies the power as she lashes one into the alley.

GOLF

This year's golf team was composed of four of the six members from last year and four new students. The coach this year, Jeff Lindgren stated, "We have a pretty good reputation, now they must make a team." In the past several years, CLU's golf team has done very well. Last May, 1996, it finished 16th in the country in Division III at the National Conference in New York. It also won the SCIAC for the fourth year in a row.

One of the biggest events was the CLU Kingsmen Invitational, which was a one day, 36-hole tournament at the Wood Ranch Golf Course in Simi Valley. There were fourteen teams invited from California, Washington, and Oregon. Cal Lu came in second to Pt. Loma.

Team members included: Rick Brown, Clint Elsemore, Jeremy White, David Richardson, Jon Manning, Jeff Karpman, Dave Bayles, Ken Seldeen, Lars Bruflat, Paul Kendrick, Eric Osthagen and Andy Withers. With all but one player returning next year, the team has high hopes of repeating their outstanding performance.

Returning starter, Senior Rick Brown, smashes a drive in the CLU Invitational.

Jermy White watches intently as his ball flies toward the hole.

BASEBALL

"The Western Regional Title is what we gun for every year," Curran commented. He also said that this is the third time that CLU has won this title. The other two years were times were in 1992 and 1993.

The top newcomers this year are Junior Dave Ballon, Junior Bryan Erckenbrack, Senior Marco Marquez, and Junior Joseph Jauregui.

"CLU baseball's toughest opponent this year was Chapman Univeristy," Curran says. Other tough opponents this year included Claremont-Mudd-Scripts and Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. Despite this the year was successful with an team total average of 362 and Sophomore Eric Buben averaging the highest of 429.

DANCE

Every year, the dance team gets better! This energetic group of girls really showed their stuff this season. The 1996-97 Regal Dance Team consisted of four dancers. Some were brand new, and some returned for another exciting year of entertaining sports fans. Their dancing demonstrated a collaborative effort producing all of their own choreography and style.

The dancers performed at football games with the cheerleaders, basketball halftimes, and many other CLU events. The advisor of the dance team was Mrs. Robin Privat, and the members were Danielle Gunn, Dawn Williams, Teri Richards, and Ashlee Magdaleno.

Overall it was a successful year with a lot of "dancing madness." The motto the dance team stuck by through the year of practices, sweat, and tears, was "WIMPY GIRLS SUCK!"

CHEER

From cheering to performing half-time shows, the CLU cheerleaders continued to show school spirit and promote student involvement. The members of the squad put countless hours into preparing for each football and basketball game.

With a team nine strong, this diversified group of energetic students continued to exemplify spirit and good sportsmanship at CLU.

The members this year were: Alison Adams, Wendy Becerra, Sherry Briant, Stephanie Cooley, Rachel Dennis, Sommer Embree, Becky Platts, Laura Uss, and Lawrence Rodriguez.

Each and every member is an inspiration to all students to stay involved and represent CLU well.

COMPUTER SCIENCE MATH/PHYSICS

James Guild, Thomas Janssens, Sandy Lofstock, Paul Stanley, Terrence Tong, Ashraf Wadaa, Cynthia Wyels

What can be said? They're great! It's amazing to watch the enthusiastic instructors of these fields baffle students, especially in the area of physics. These people really strive to make themselves available to students for help, which is what everyone at CLU should have the opportunity for. The betterment of their students is the goal of each and every teacher in these departments.

ENGLISH

Jan Bowman, Penny Cefola, Susan Corey, Melvyn Haberman, Susan Hahn, John Kundert-Gibbs, Jack T. Ledbetter, Marsha Markman, Lyle Murley, Sigmar Schwarz, Bruce Stevenson, Gerry Swanson, Joan Wines

New to the English department this year is John Kundert-Gibbs, but already he has made an impressive start. In the fall he directed a black box, "All In The Timing" with his wife.

ART

Jerry Slattum, Larkin Higgins, Joel Edwards

The art department is very active. Not only are there a variety of interesting classes, but there are many chances for students to enter their work in compitions. The prizes can be any where from $250-$5,000. Many students also enjoy the lively classes that are taught with a creative twist.

DRAMA

Ken Gardner, Michael Roehr, Lolita Ball, Michael Arndt.

The Drama Department has an array of show each year and a musical every two years. This year's shows included You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, directed by Barbara Wagner-Thomas, Marvin's Room directed by Ken Gardner, the musical Kiss Me Kate directed by Michael Arndt and The Rude Mechanicals directed by Barbara Wagner-Thomas.

GEOLOGY

William Bilodeau, Jeffrey Meyer, Linda Ritterbush

Geology is a field that can be explored and dealt with first hand. And that is exactly what Bilodeau, Meyer, and Ritterbush do. Between the various field trips and expeditions, they keep students busy and interested.

MUSIC

Daniel Geeting, Wyant Morton,
Dorothy Schechter, Carl Swanson

The Music Department gives students a chance to challenge themselves. Whether it be with private instrument or voice lessons, music theory, or the choir there is always something going on in the music department. The two choirs of CLU are Regents (the all women's choir), and the CLU choir. The two choirs usually have at least one fall and spring concert.

PHILOSOPHY

William Bersley, Xiang Chen, Nathan Tierney, Henry Tailfer

The Philosophy Department has contributed to many students lives in that a greater understanding of the world and its beings can be established. Some of the faculty, like Dr. Tierney, go so far as to counsel incoming freshmen admits.

RELIGION

Pamela Brubaker, Joseph Everson, Deborah Sills, Jarvis Streeter, Ernst Tonsing, Marit Trelstad, Mark Knutson, Bryon Swanson, Katherine Swanson

The Religion Department is the stronghold for the university, in terms of stability. The faculty put much of themselves into their work and make the religion classes interesting to students.

ADMISSIONS

Wendy Alker, Paula Avery, Sara Brown, Mark Curtis, Nancy Deshaies, Cody Hartley, Gloria Lopez, Kathy Mears, Marc Mereidth, Allison Pilmer, Gay Tortorici

Personnel at the Admissions Office are known as the people who strive to welcome you to CLU; they tried to make you feel at home. They work hard to recruit new students for CLU in the hope that they may also contribute and gain from the CLU experience.

ALUMNI RELATIONS

Barbara Brown, Pamela Knitowski, Amy Zurek, Lisa Louis, Tamarra Mellick, Robin Privat, Kristin Bertell

This team keeps track of all the alums of CLU. In addition, such people as Robin Privat and Amy Zurek contribute to S.A.A. (Student Alumni Association) and support the Alumni-Mentor program that is also part of S.A.A.

REGISTRAR

Allyn Collins, Barbara Duffin, Marilyn Erickson, Diane Nentrup, Dorothy Posey, Lorraine Purmort, Lucy Rodriguez, Sue Sanders

This office is so friendly that many students who come into it are known by name. All year round, these women spend many hours helping students, whether it be with adding a class or trying to figure out graduation requirements.

MAILROOM

Cecile La Voie, Debbie Norwak

Students all flood into the mail room in hopes of finding something besides junk mail and phone bills in their mailboxes. Both of these women spend many hours a day making sure everything goes smoothly as the mail goes in and out. Without their experience and attention to detail, students would be driving to the post office more often.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Mike Fuller, Bryan McCoy, Carmen Kuchera, Justin Knight, Julie Escobedo

The organization that brings CLU such activities as Laker tickets for $25, "Freeze Your Lu Butt" nights, and many of the dorm activities all year, begins with Mike, Justin, Bryan, and Julie. They always inspire RHA, Senate, and Programs Board with new ideas. Because of their inspiration, Programs Board has been voted the best in West Coast colleges.

KCLU

Mike West, Mary Olson

The jazz station of CLU features all types of jazz music. It can range from traditional to contemporary jazz. In addition to music there are live updates from Washington and Reader's Theatre. Many members of the Drama Club meet and record children's show which they air later on 88.3 FM. In addition, many students enjoy their internships with Mike and Mary.

EVENTS & SERVICES

Dennis E. Bryant, James T. Judge

Events and Services are who you see out on the fields many hours before events such as Band Fest, Scandinavian Days and Homecoming Fair occurs. They not only set things up but they make sure everything is running smoothly. When students fun ends they are still there for many hours cleaning up.

HEALTH SERVICES

Lucy Ballard, Kelly Escalante, Elaine Guellich, Beverly Kemmerling, Lara Whisman, Bernie Olivares, Abilio Ramos, Michelle Angelo, Bob Smith, Gerland Karpman

Health Services offers an inexpensive and convenient doctors office right here on campus. The women there take care of everything from sports clearance to serious medical problems, and they do their best to keep CLU students in good health.

SECURITY

Gordon Randolph, Ray Jackson

Security is not only known to control traffic, but they unlock doors for students who forgot their keys or for those who need into a building to pick up something. Whether it is two in the afternoon or two in the morning, you can always count on our security staff to be around and available to help.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

PUBLICATIONS

YEARBOOK

The yearbook staff was hard at work throughout the year writing stories about events or taking pictures. Many long hours go into putting together a record of the year, but when it is done it is well worth it.

MORNING GLORY

This number one literary magazine was composed of student's art work and writing. Many pieces were turned in, but only a few were selected by the editors. All their hard work paid off at the end of each year. The Editor responsible for evrything was Robin Mitchell.

ECHO

The Echo is the newspaper of CLU. When it comes out every two weeks, not only does it cover the major events of CLU, but there are also close-ups on individuals, a look at the arts, religion, sports, and students opinions. The Managing Editor is Mike Wehn.

The 1996-1997 Kairos staff had many challenges to face this year, but with the help of many individuals we were able to publish a great book. I thank my staff, especially Belinda, Jen, and Trinity for giving up their sleep to help me work long into the night to meet deadlines. Because of the perseverance and help of John Reed, Jim O'Connor, and Josten's, we were inspired to make our last yearbook at Cal Lutheran the very best; we strove to make it interesting and exciting, but always keeping in mind the Christian foundation of our school.

I hope that everyone who looks at the '96-'97 yearbook will take something positive away with them and I hope that they are inspired to Go Out Into All The World in their own unique way...
